

Bunkhouse – the ‘Perfect Getaway’

- Located at the intersection of NM highways 36 and 117
- Nestled in 24 Acres of Piñon Pine and Juniper Trees on an Alpaca Ranch; Elevation 7560’
- Fully Furnished, 2 Bedroom/2 Bathroom

Includes

- Refrigerator, Stove/Oven, Dishwasher, Microwave, Outdoor Grill
- Towels, Washcloths, Bedding, Cooking Utensils & Dinnerware
- Washer/Dryer [Detergents & Fabric Softeners]
- Internet, Books, Games
- Wildlife: Elk, Deer, Antelope, Coyotes
- Domestic Animals: Alpacas, Dogs, Cats, Chickens
- Activities: Hiking, Star Gazing, Relaxing, Fire Pits, Animal Husbandry
- Remote Camping/RV Sites Available

*Just Bring Food, Clothes, and Toiletries [Farm Fresh Eggs Provided When Available]

Ranch Guest Rates

Call 505-788-2260 to make arrangements

Day Visits: No Charge

Camping/RV: $10 per Night

$10 Electric/Water Hookup

Bunkhouse: $75.00 per Night

$400.00 per Week

$25.00 Cleaning Fee

Discounted Rates are Available for

Guests Associated with Developmental Disabilities/Autism Spectrum

Local Attractions

- Quemado Lake: Offers fishing, hiking, boat rentals, picnicking, wildlife, and general store/restaurant/gas.
- Coyote Del Malpais Golf Course: An 18-hole golf course in Grants, New Mexico that features 7,087 yards of golf from the longest tees for a par of 71, a course rating of 71.8, and a slope rating of 120.
- El Malpais: Wilderness areas including sandstone cliffs, canyons, La Ventana Natural Arch, the Chain of Craters Back Country Byway and the Narrows Picnic Area. Offers photography, hiking, camping and wildlife viewing.
- Mount Taylor: The tallest mountain in Northwest New Mexico at 11,301 feet above sea level. Offers campgrounds, hiking, picnicking, views extending into Colorado.
- The New Mexico Mining Museum: Exhibits, relics, and videos about the general history of Grants and Cibola County, with main focus on the uranium boom.
- El Morro National Monument: Sandstone preserves with thousands of ancient and historic inscriptions from the Ancient Pueblo People, the Spanish Conquistadores, and the American pioneers. Includes a campground, visitor center, and two trails.
- Wild Spirit Wolf Sanctuary: Guided tours providing history of the Sanctuary and its mission; wolf, dog, and wolf-dog behaviors and characteristics; why wolves and wolf-dogs make poor pets; how the captive wolves are cared for. Include gift shop with small snacks and beverages.
- Ice Caves & Bandero Volcano: Trails to Ice Caves that are located in part of a collapsed lava tube where temperature never rises above 31 F; and to Bandero Volcano, one of the finest examples and most accessible erupted volcano in the country. Trading Post has artifacts on display and Indian jewelry, pottery, rugs and other art of local Indian tribes.
- Pueblo of Acoma or Sky City: Ancient city atop a 367 foot sandstone bluff that can be visited with guided tours. Includes gift shop with Native American jewelry and pottery, café, and a nearby casino.
- Zuni Pueblo: The largest of the nineteen New Mexican Pueblos. An artist colony famous for inlay silverwork and stone “fetish” jewelry, and pottery.
- Very Large Array: One of the world's premier astronomical radio observatories, consisting of 27 radio antennas in a Y-shaped configuration on the Plains of San Agustin. Includes guided and self-guided tours, photo gallery, and gift shop.